Wisconsin Rapids Lincoln Names New Head Boys Basketball Coach

WISCONSIN RAPIDS, WIS.-Wisconsin Rapids Lincoln is pleased to announce the hiring of Jack Smalley as the new Varsity Boys Basketball Coach.

Jack is a graduate of Onalaska High School and received his undergraduate degree from UW-La Crosse. In the past eight years, Jack has been a part of twenty-six coaching seasons, and for the past four years, he has been an assistant coach in the Boys Basketball program at Lincoln High School.

Coach Smalley is currently a social studies teacher at Lincoln High School and also coaches football and JV baseball.

“I am honored to be the next head coach for a program with a prestigious coaching history. I am excited about the opportunity to work with our student-athletes and to represent and serve Lincoln High School and our community.”

The Lincoln High School Athletic Department is excited about what Coach Smalley will bring to the Boys Basketball program. He is an incredibly motivated, high-integrity person who is committed to success and building strong relationships with our student-athletes, school and community. We are confident he will continue to build our Boys Basketball program.
